Read the following passage and answer the items that follow the passage. Your answers to these items should be based on the passage only

Passage - 1

India's pledge to reach net-zero by 2070 is a landmark political commitment, but commitments are only as just as the pathways used to realise them. The central question is not merely how to reduce emissions, but also who bears the social and economic costs of that transformation and who benefits from it. This makes a just transition essential. In the Indian context, such a transition should rest on three broad priorities. First, regions that depend heavily on coal need forward-looking plans so that workers are not left without support when mining activities decline. Second, the expansion of renewable energy should promote domestic manufacturing so that climate action also creates jobs within the country. Third, new financial mechanisms, supported by carbon levies, can help finance the re-skilling of workers and the growth of new local businesses. In the long run, India's journey to net-zero should be judged by distributive justice, lest it harden existing inequalities rather than deliver inclusive transformation.

Q.49) Which one of the following statements best reflect the most logical and rational inferences that can be drawn from the passage?
a) New jobs in the green sector need to be created to compensate for job losses in the fossil fuel industry.
b) India's commitment to achieve net zero reflects strong environmental stewardship towards a sustainable future.

निम्नलिखित 2 (दो) प्रश्नों के लिए निर्देश:
निम्नलिखित परिच्छेद को पढ़िए और उसके बाद दिए गए प्रश्नों के उत्तर दीजिए। इन प्रश्नों के आपके उत्तर केवल परिच्छेद पर आधारित होने चाहिए।

परिच्छेद 1

भारत का 2070 तक नेट-ज़ीरो लक्ष्य हासिल करने का संकल्प एक ऐतिहासिक राजनीतिक प्रतिबद्धता है, लेकिन प्रतिबद्धताएं तभी न्यायसंगत होती हैं जब उन्हें साकार करने के लिए उचित मार्ग अपनाए जाएं। मुख्य प्रश्न केवल उत्सर्जन कम करने का नहीं है, बल्कि यह भी है कि इस परिवर्तन की सामाजिक और आर्थिक लागत कौन वहन करेगा और इससे किसे लाभ होगा। यही कारण है कि न्यायसंगत परिवर्तन आवश्यक है। भारतीय संदर्भ में, ऐसा परिवर्तन तीन व्यापक प्राथमिकताओं पर आधारित होना चाहिए। पहला, कोयले पर अत्यधिक निर्भर क्षेत्रों के लिए दूरदर्शी योजनाओं की आवश्यकता है ताकि खनन गतिविधियों में गिरावट आने पर श्रमिकों को सहायता मिलती रहे। दूसरा, नवीकरणीय ऊर्जा के विस्तार से घरेलू विनिर्माण को बढ़ावा मिलना चाहिए ताकि जलवायु परिवर्तन के प्रयासों से देश में रोजगार के अवसर भी सृजित हों। तीसरा, कार्बन लेवी द्वारा समर्थित नए वित्तीय तंत्र श्रमिकों के कौशल विकास और नए स्थानीय व्यवसायों के विकास में सहायक हो सकते हैं। अंततः, भारत की नेट-ज़ीरो यात्रा का मूल्यांकन वितरणात्मक न्याय के आधार पर किया जाना चाहिए, अन्यथा यह समावेशी परिवर्तन लाने के बजाय मौजूदा असमानताओं को और बढ़ा देगा।

Q.49) निम्नलिखित में से कौन-सा कथन परिच्छेद से निकाले जा सकने वाले सबसे तार्किक और युक्तिसंगत निष्कर्ष को सर्वोत्तम रूप से दर्शाता है?

a) हरित क्षेत्र में नए रोजगार सृजित किए जाने चाहिए ताकि जीवाश्म ईंधन उद्योग में रोजगार हानि की भरपाई की जा सके।

b) नेट-ज़ीरो प्राप्त करने के प्रति भारत की प्रतिबद्धता एक सतत भविष्य के प्रति मजबूत पर्यावरण संरक्षण को दर्शाती है।

c) हरित भविष्य की ओर संक्रमण समावेशी होना चाहिए और यह सुनिश्चित करना चाहिए कि इसके लाभ समाज के सभी वर्गों में समान रूप से वितरित हों।

d) कार्बन बाजार का विकास भारत की अर्थव्यवस्था के डी-कार्बोनाइजेशन को तीव्र करने में सहायक हो सकता है।

100%		75%		50%		0%

Q.50) उपर्युक्त परिच्छेद के संदर्भ में, निम्नलिखित धारणाएं बनाई गई हैं:

I. हरित ऊर्जा की ओर संक्रमण जीवाश्म ईंधन पर निर्भर समुदायों की आजीविका प्रभावित नहीं होनी चाहिए।

II. हरित ऊर्जा के क्षेत्र में भारत की निरंतर प्रगति इसे 2070 तक अपने नेट-ज़ीरो लक्ष्य को प्राप्त करने के लिए एक मजबूत स्थिति में रखती है। उपर्युक्त में से कौन-सी धारणा/धारणाएँ मान्य है/हैं?

a) केवल I

b) केवल II

Q.1) Consider the following statements in respect of the Non-Cooperation Movement:
I. The Congress declared the attainment of 'Swaraj' by all legitimate and peaceful means to be its objective.
II. It was to be implemented in stages with civil disobedience and non- payment of taxes for the next stage only if 'Swaraj' did not come within a year and the Government resorted to repression.
Which of the statements given above is/are correct?
a) I only
b) II only
c) Both I and II
d) Neither I nor II

Ans) c
Exp) Option c is the correct answer.
Statement I is correct: The Indian National Congress (INC) endorsed the program of non-cooperation at the Nagpur session in December 1920. At this session, an important change was made in the Congress. Now, instead of having the attainment of self-government through constitutional means as its goal, the Congress decided to have the attainment of swaraj through peaceful and legitimate means, thus committing itself to an extra constitutional mass struggle.
Statement II is correct: The Non-Cooperation movement was planned to be implemented in stages. The later phase of the movement involved resignation from government service, and non-payment of taxes.

- In the first phase from January to March 1921, the main emphasis was on the boycott of schools, colleges, law courts and the use of Charkha.
- This phase was followed by the second phase starting from April 1921. In this phase the basic objectives were the collection of Rs. one crore for the Tilak Swaraj Fund by August 1921, enrolling one crore Congress members and installing 20 lakh Charkhas by 30 June.
- In the third phase, starting from July, the stress was on boycott of foreign cloth, boycott of the forthcoming visit of the Prince of Wales in November, 1921, popularization of Charkha and Khadi, and Jail Bharo by Congress volunteers.
- In the last phase, since November 1921, a shift towards radicalism was visible. The Congress volunteers rallied the people and the country was on the verge of a revolt. Gandhi decided to launch a no-revenue campaign at Bardoli, and also a mass civil disobedience movement for freedom of speech, press and association.

Q.2) In the context of Mahatma Gandhi's Satyagraha in South Africa, consider the following statements:
Statement I: He launched Satyagraha in South Africa against the Asiatic Law Amendment Act, 1907.
Statement II: The Asiatic Law Amendment Act, 1907 imposed an annual three-pound poll tax on indentured Indian labourers in South Africa.
Statement III: The Asiatic Law Amendment Act, 1907 rendered Hindu, Muslim, and Parsi marriages legally invalid in South Africa.
Which one of the following is correct in respect of the above statements?
a) Both Statement II and Statement III are correct and both of them explain Statement I
b) Both Statement II and Statement III are correct but only one of them explains Statement I
c) Only one of Statements II and III is correct and that explains Statement I
d) Neither Statement II nor Statement III is correct

Ans) d
Exp) Option d is the correct answer.
Statement I is correct: Mahatma Gandhi launched the Satyagraha movement in South Africa against the Asiatic Law Amendment Act, 1907 (often called the "Black Act"). The provisions of the act included every Indian -- man, woman or child above eight -- was required to register and to give finger and thumb impressions on the registration form. At any time, an Indian could be asked to produce his registration certificate, and police officers were permitted to enter an Indian's house to check his / her papers.

Statement II is incorrect. The annual £3 poll tax was not imposed under the Asiatic Law Amendment Act, 1907. It had been introduced earlier in 1895 (The Immigration Law Amendment Act 1895) in Natal and was levied on ex-indentured Indian labourers to compel them either to return to plantation work or leave the colony.

Statement III is incorrect. The issue of Hindu, Muslim, and Parsi marriages being declared invalid arose later due to a 1913 court judgment in South Africa, which recognised only Christian marriages registered under colonial law. This decision deeply affected the legal status of Indian families and became a major cause for the 1913 Satyagraha, in which many Indian women actively participated. However, this was not a provision of the the Asiatic Law Amendment Act, 1907.

Q.3) 'The country thus had its first object lesson in Civil Disobedience.' This statement was made by Mahatma Gandhi during:
a) Champaran Satyagraha
b) Salt Satyagraha
c) Kheda Satyagraha
d) Khilafat Movement

Ans) a
Exp) Option a is the correct answer

India's first civil disobedience movement was launched by Mahatma Gandhi to protest against the injustice meted out to tenant farmers in Champaran district of Bihar. It is widely regarded as the place where Gandhi made his first experiments in satyagraha and then replicated them elsewhere .

The tenant farmers in Champaran were bound by law to plant three out of every twenty parts of his land with indigo for his landlord. This system was called Tinkathia. Mahatma Gandhi's plan was to carry out an extensive inquiry in the district and demand action based on its findings. At the time of enquiry, he was summoned by local court on behalf of the planters.

When Mahatma Gandhi appeared in court, a number of people accompanied him. The magistrate wanted to defer the trial. But Gandhiji wanted to plead guilty. He said I have disregarded the order served upon me not for want of respect for lawful authority, but in obedience to the higher law of our being, the voice of conscience.

The Lieutenant Governor of Bihar ordered the withdrawal of the case against Gandhi, and the Collector wrote to Gandhiji saying he was free to conduct the inquiry. It was then he said - The country thus had its first object lesson in Civil Disobedience.

How many of the above were Indian members of the Disorders Inquiry Committee popularly called as Hunter Commission to inquire about the Jallianwala Bagh massacre?

a) Only one

b) Only two

c) All the three

d) None

Ans) a

Exp) Option a is the correct answer

The Jallianwala Bagh massacre (also known as the Amritsar massacre) took place on April 13, 1919 in Amritsar, Punjab. On October 14, 1919, the Disorders Inquiry Committee was formed to inquire about the Jallianwala Bagh massacre. It later came to be known as the Hunter Commission.

Q.7) With reference to the freedom struggle of India, consider the following statements about Khilafat Movement:

I. One of its initial objectives was achieving self-governance for India.

II. Mahatma Gandhi was elected President of the first All India Khilafat Conference.

Which of the statements given above is/are correct?

a) I only

b) II only

c) Both I and II

d) Neither I nor II

Ans) b

Exp) Option b is the correct answer.

Statement I is incorrect: The objective of the Khilafat Movement was primarily to protect the institution of the Ottoman Caliphate and ensure that the Ottoman Sultan retained control over Islamic holy places after World War I. The movement was rooted in pan-Islamic religious concerns rather than the demand for Indian self-governance. Although it later aligned with the Non-Cooperation Movement and the broader nationalist struggle, achieving self-rule was not among its initial objectives.

Statement II is correct: Mahatma Gandhi was elected as the President of the All-India Khilafat Conference held in Delhi on November 23, 1919.

The first All-India Khilafat Conference was held in Delhi in November 1919, reflecting the early Hindu–Muslim cooperation around the Khilafat issue. Mahatma Gandhi's leadership helped integrate the Khilafat cause with the broader anti-colonial movement and laid the foundation for the Non-Cooperation Movement.

Statement II is incorrect: The Non-Cooperation programme adopted the boycott of legislative councils established under the Government of India Act, 1919. Statement II is correct. The bill was strongly opposed by Indian members of the Imperial Legislative Council, and some elected members such as Muhammad Ali Jinnah, Madan Mohan Malaviya, and Mazhar-ul-Haq resigned in protest after the Act was passed.

Who is 'he' in the above statement?
a) Sukhdev Thapar
b) Chandrashekhar Azad
c) Shivaram Rajguru
d) Batukeshwar Dutt

Ans) d
Exp) Option d is the correct answer

In April 1929, Batukeshwar Dutt and Bhagat Singh threw non-lethal smoke bombs into the Central Legislative Assembly in Delhi. Their objective was to protest the Public Safety Bill and the Trade Dispute Bill and to "make the deaf hear" regarding Indian grievances, rather than to cause casualties.
Knowledge Base:

- March 23 is observed as Shaheed Diwas, or Martyr's Day, in India. On this day in 1931, Bhagat Singh, along with fellow revolutionaries Sukhdev Thapar and Shivaram Rajguru, were hanged to death in Lahore Central Jail, for murdering British police officer John Saunders.

Q.17) With reference to No-changers within the Indian National Congress during the Indian National Movement, consider the following statements:
I. They were in favour of contesting elections to the provincial and imperial Legislative councils.
II. Motilal Nehru and Chittaranjan Das were prominent leaders associated with this group.
Which of the statements given above is/are correct?
a) I only
b) II only
c) Both I and II
d) Neither I nor II

Ans) d
Exp) Option d is the correct answer.
Following the suspension of the Non-Cooperation Movement in 1922 after the Chauri Chaura incident, the Indian National Congress faced a strategic debate. This led to a division between the 'No-Changers', who wished to continue the boycott of colonial institutions, and the 'Pro-Changers' (Swarajists), who advocated for entering legislative councils to obstruct the government from within.
Statement I is incorrect: The 'No-Changers' staunchly opposed participation in the legislative councils established under the Government of India Act, 1919. They argued that council entry would divert attention from the grassroots struggle and lead to a gradual integration into the colonial administrative machinery, thereby weakening the nationalist movement.
Instead of parliamentary politics, this group emphasised the Constructive Programme introduced by Mahatma Gandhi. They focused on social and economic self-reliance through the promotion of khadi, the establishment of national education institutions, the removal of untouchability, and the promotion of communal harmony to prepare the masses for future civil disobedience.
Statement II is incorrect: Motilal Nehru and Chittaranjan Das were the primary leaders of the 'Pro-Changers' or the Swaraj Party. They disagreed with the No-Changer position and sought to "wreck the reforms from within" the councils. Prominent leaders associated with the 'No-Changers' included C. Rajagopalachari, Vallabhbhai Patel, and Rajendra Prasad.

Which of the statements given above is/are correct?
a) I only
b) II only
c) Both I and II
d) Neither I nor II

Ans) c
Exp) Option c is the correct answer.
In 1934, after the suspension of the Civil Disobedience Movement, many Congress leaders decided to enter the legislative council. However, a group of younger leaders believed that legislative participation might dilute the revolutionary character of the national movement. These leaders sought to create a socialist group within the Congress.
The First All-India Congress Socialists' Conference (Patna, May 1934) was convened by Jayaprakash Narayan on behalf of the Bihar Socialist group. It was presided over by Acharya Narendra Deva. The first Annual Session (Bombay, October 1934) was held under the presidency of Sampurnanand with Jayaprakash Narayan as General Secretary.
Statements I and II are correct: Congress Socialist Party was established in 1934 within the Indian National Congress under the leadership of Jayaprakash Narayan, Acharya Narendra Dev and Minoo Masani.
The Congress Socialist Party (CSP) was founded in 1934 with a socialist agenda within the Indian National Congress. The CSP advocated decentralised socialism in which co-operatives, trade unions, independent farmers, and local authorities would hold a substantial share of the economic power. As secularists, they hoped to transcend communal divisions through class solidarity.
Independence (freedom from British rule) and socialism were the twin objectives of the Congress Socialist Party.

The Second Round Table Conference was held in London from September 7 to December 1, 1931 to discuss constitutional reforms for India. It took place after the Gandhi–Irwin Pact, which temporarily suspended the Civil Disobedience Movement and allowed the Indian National Congress to participate in the conference.
Option I is correct. The Indian National Congress nominated Gandhi as its sole representative. The Congress nominated him to present its views and demands regarding India's constitutional future and self-government.
Option II is incorrect. Although Madan Mohan Malaviya attended the conference, he did not represent the Congress officially.
Option III is incorrect. Motilal Nehru did not participate in the Second Round Table Conference.

Q.36) Who among the following designed the prototype of one of the earliest known Indian flags, which featured a thunderbolt (vajra) symbolizing strength and the words "Bonde Matoram" in Bengali embroidered, and the flag was displayed in the exhibition organised by the Indian Congress in 1906?
a) Pingali Venkayya
b) Bhikaiji Cama
c) Sister Nivedita
d) Sachindra Prasad Bose

Ans) c
Exp) Option c is the correct answer.
The evolution of the Indian National Flag was a journey of various designs reflecting the changing political aspirations and symbols of the freedom struggle. Before the adoption of the current Tricolour, several revolutionary flags were hoisted to unite the people against colonial rule during the early 20th century.
Option c is correct. Sister Nivedita (born Margaret Elizabeth Noble), a disciple of Swami Vivekananda, designed one of the earliest known Indian flags around 1904. Often referred to as the "Nivedita Flag," it was a red, square-shaped flag with a yellow border. In the centre, it featured the "Vajra" (thunderbolt), the weapon of Lord Indra, which symbolised strength and sacrifice. The flag was famously inscribed with the words "Bonde Matoram" (Vande Mataram) in Bengali script. The flag was displayed in the exhibition organised by the Indian Congress in 1906.
Option a is incorrect. Pingali Venkayya is primarily known for designing the version of the flag presented to Mahatma Gandhi at the Bezwada session of the Congress in 1921. His design, which originally featured red and green stripes with a charkha (spinning wheel), served as the fundamental basis for the modern national flag.
Option b is incorrect. Madame Bhikaiji Cama is celebrated for hoisting the "Flag of Indian Independence" at the International Socialist Conference in Stuttgart, Germany, in 1907. Her flag was a tricolour of green, yellow, and red, featuring eight lotuses representing the provinces of British India and the words "Vande Mataram" in Devanagari.
Option d is incorrect. Sachindra Prasad Bose was associated with the design of the "Calcutta Flag" (or the Lotus Flag), which was hoisted on August 7, 1906, during a protest against the Partition of Bengal. This flag consisted of three horizontal stripes of green, yellow, and red, but it did not feature the thunderbolt symbol associated with Nivedita's design.

Q.37) Which of the following best describes the system of 'Dyarchy' introduced under the Government of India Act, 1919?
a) The establishment of a bicameral legislature at the Central level consisting of a Council of State and a Legislative Assembly.
b) The division of administrative powers between the Secretary of State for India in London and the Viceroy in Delhi.
c) The classification of provincial subjects into two categories, 'Reserved Subjects' and 'Transferred Subjects.'

d) The introduction of a federal system where the British India provinces and the Indian Princely States were provided with certain rights and powers.

Ans) c

Exp) Option c is the correct answer.

The Government of India Act 1919, based on the Montagu–Chelmsford Reforms, introduced several constitutional changes in British India. One of its most significant features was the introduction of Dyarchy (rule of two) at the provincial level of government. Under this system, provincial subjects were divided into 'Reserved' and 'Transferred' categories. Reserved subjects such as law and order, finance, land revenue, and irrigation were administered by the Governor and his executive council of British officials, while transferred subjects like education, health, agriculture, and local government were handled by Indian ministers responsible to the provincial legislature.

Q.40) With reference to the initiatives of the Election Commission of India, consider the following pairs:

Initiative	Purpose/Objective
I. ECINET	To deliver all election-related services to voters and other stakeholders through a single digital platform
II. Saksham App	To provide a single window system where candidates and parties can apply for all campaign related permissions
III. SVEEP	To facilitate Returning Officers to do scrutiny of the nominations filed by the candidates

How many pairs given above are correctly matched?
a) Only one
b) Only two
c) All the three
d) None

Ans) a
Exp) Option a is the correct answer.
Pair I is correct. The Election Commission of (ECI) India has launched a single-point App ECINET for stakeholders. ECINET has been developed as a unified digital interface to deliver all election-related services to voters and other stakeholders through a single platform. It offers an appealing User Interface (UI) and a streamlined User Experience (UX) by integrating various electoral activities under one roof. Users can conveniently access essential election-related information and services on their desktops as well as smartphones. ECINET will consolidate and replace multiple existing applications such as the Voter Helpline App, Voter Turnout App, cVIGIL, Suvidha 2.0, ESMS, Saksham, and KYC App. ECINET is a digital platform that will bring together 40 voter-related apps. 'ECINET' is aimed at providing all services for stakeholders at a single point, instead of the over 40 apps or websites that exist now.
Pair II is incorrect. Saksham app facilitates easier voting for persons-with-disability. The Saksham App provides a number of features to help PwDs register to vote, find their polling station, and cast their vote.

Suvidha app is a one-stop solution for seeking, tracking and downloading all campaign related permissions as well as ECI updates like Press Notes and latest instructions/orders.

Pair III is incorrect. Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) program provides for voter education, spreading voter awareness and promoting voter literacy in India. The SVEEP Portal provides an effective digital engagement platform. The website contains forums, quizzes, manuals, tutorials and also provides a facility for voters to share photographs during the polling day.

Q.42) With reference to the Salt Satyagraha of 1930 during the freedom struggle of India, consider the following statements:
I. Sibirams were established to serve as headquarters of the Satyagraha in Andhra region.
II. In Tamil Nadu, K. Kelappan led a march from Tiruchirapally to Vedaranniyam.
III. The Kurnool Circular, issued by the British government, banned students' participation in the Salt Satyagraha.
Which of the statements given above is/are correct?
a) I only
b) II and III
c) II only
d) I and III

Ans) a

Exp) Option a is the correct answer.

The Salt Satyagraha (1930) was a pivotal civil disobedience movement initiated by Mahatma Gandhi against the British salt monopoly, starting with the march from Sabarmati Ashram to Dandi.

Statement I is correct: In Andhra region, district salt marches were organised in east and west Godavari, Krishna and Guntur. A number of sibirams (military style camps) were set up to serve as the headquarters of the Salt Satyagraha. The merchants also contributed to Congress funds, and the dominant caste Kamma and Raju cultivators defied repressive measures.

Statement II is incorrect: In April 1930, C. Rajagopalachari (and not K. Kelappan) organised a march from Thiruchirapalli (Trichinapoly as it was called by the British) to Vedaranniyam on the Tanjore (or Thanjavur) coast in Tamil Nadu to break the salt law. The event was followed by widespread picketing of foreign cloth shops; the anti-liquor campaign gathered forceful support in interior regions of Coimbatore, Madura, Virdhanagar, etc.

- K. Kelappan led a Salt march from Calicut to Poyannur in Malabar.

Statement III is incorrect: The Kurnool circular was a circular on the Quit India movement issued by the Congress Committee of Kurnool district in present-day Andhra Pradesh. The circular was meant to provide detailed guidelines to the Taluk Congress Committees and other local organizations for the ensuing movement.

The 'Cunningham Circular', issued in 1930, was a restrictive British directive aimed at suppressing student participation in the Civil Disobedience Movement. The circular unjustly had forced students and their guardians to furnish assurances of good behaviour to the colonial government and banned students' participation in politics. It evoked powerful agitation led by students in Assam.

Q.43) Before launching the Civil Disobedience movement Mahatma Gandhi placed eleven points of administrative reform and stated that if the British colonial government accepted them there would be no need for agitation. In this context consider the following:

I. Reduction of land revenue demand by fifty per cent.

II. Abolition of permanent settlement system of land revenue in Bengal and Bihar.

III. Introduction of a minimum wage for labourers working on British-owned plantations.

IV. Abolition of salt tax and government monopoly on salt manufacturing.

Which of the above were part of Mahatma Gandhi's eleven points of administrative reform?

a) I, II and IV only

b) II, III and IV only

c) I and IV only

d) I and III only

Ans) c

Exp) Option c is the correct answer.

Prior to initiating the Civil Disobedience Movement, Mahatma Gandhi placed a set of 'Eleven Demands' relating to administrative reforms before Viceroy Lord Irwin on January 31, 1930, effectively issuing an ultimatum for reform before mass agitation would commence.

Options I and IV are correct: Following were the specific peasants demands put forward by Mahatma Gandhi as part of his eleven points of administrative reform:

- Land revenue should be reduced by half (50 percent) and be made a subject of legislative control.
- Salt tax should be abolished and also the government monopoly over manufacturing of salt.

Option II is incorrect: Abolition of permanent settlement system of land revenue in Bengal and Bihar was not part of the 'Eleven Demands' made by Mahatma Gandhi to Lord Irwin.

Option III is incorrect: Mahatma Gandhi's Eleven Demands contained no provision for a statutory minimum wage for agricultural labourers working on British-owned plantations and estates.

Knowledge Base: Other Demands made by Mahatma Gandhi as part of his 'Eleven Demands':

- Reduce expenditure on Army and civil services by 50 per cent.
- Introduce total prohibition.
- Carry out reforms in the Criminal Investigation Department (CID).
- Change Arms Act allowing popular control of issue of firearms licences.
- Release political prisoners.
- Accept Postal Reservation Bill.
- Reduce rupee-sterling exchange ratio to 1s 4d

- Introduce textile protection.
- Reserve coastal shipping for Indians.

Q.44) Consider the following women leaders of the Indian national movement:
I. Sarojini Naidu
II. Mithuben Petit
III. Annie Besant
IV. Durgabai Deshmukh
How many of the above actively participated in the Salt Satyagraha?
a) Only one
b) Only two
c) Only three
d) All the four

Ans) c
Exp) Option c is the correct answer.
Option I is correct: Following Mahatma Gandhi's arrest on May 5, 1930, Sarojini Naidu took over the leadership of the Satyagraha. On May 21, 1930, Sarojini Naidu, Imam Sahib and Manilal (Gandhi's son) took up the unfinished task of leading a raid on the Dharasana Salt Works. The unarmed and peaceful crowd was met with a brutal lathi charge. This new form of salt satyagraha was eagerly adopted by people in Wadala (Bombay), Karnataka (Sanikatta Salt Works), Andhra, Midnapore, Balasore, Puri and Cuttack.
Option II is correct: Mithuben Petit dedicated herself to Mahatma Gandhi's cause. She was instrumental in mobilising women in Gujarat for the Salt March and was among those who accompanied Gandhi to Dandi. A firm believer in social reform, she worked extensively for women's education, the upliftment of Dalits, and the abolition of child marriage.
Option III is incorrect: Annie Besant did not participate in the Salt Satyagraha march. Following the Nagpur session of the Indian National Congress (INC) in 1920 where the Congress decided to have the attainment of swaraj through peaceful and legitimate means, thus committing itself to an extraconstitutional mass struggle, Annie Besant left the Congress.
Option IV is correct: Durgabai Deshmukh was an Indian freedom fighter, lawyer, social worker and politician. She participated in Gandhi-led Salt Satyagraha activities during the Civil Disobedience Movement. She took over as leader of the movement in Madras after freedom fighter T. Prakasam was arrested. She was arrested and sentenced to prison for nearly three years from 1930-1933. She was instrumental in organising women satyagrahis in the movement.

Q.45) Which of the following provisions were agreed by Mahatma Gandhi on behalf of the Indian National Congress as part of the Gandhi-Irwin Pact?
I. Discontinuation of all forms of picketing of British goods.
II. Participation in the Second Round Table Conference.
III. Suspension of the Civil Disobedience Movement.
Select the correct answer using the code given below:
a) I and II only
b) II and III only
c) I and III only
d) I, II and III

Ans) b
Exp) Option b is the correct answer.
The Gandhi-Irwin Pact, also known as the Delhi Pact, was signed in Delhi on February 14, 1931 between the Viceroy Lord Irwin, representing the British Indian Government, and Mahatma Gandhi, representing the Indian people. This Pact placed the Congress on an equal footing with the government.
Option I is incorrect: Discontinuation of all forms of picketing of British goods was not one of the provisions of the Gandhi-Irwin Pact. The Pact actually permitted peaceful picketing of liquor and foreign cloth shops. Viceroy Lord Irwin agreed on behalf of the British government the right to peaceful and non-aggressive picketing.
Options II and III are correct: As part of the Gandhi-Irwin Pact, Mahatma Gandhi on behalf of the Congress, agreed:
- to suspend the civil disobedience movement and
- to participate in the next Round Table Conference on the constitutional question around the three linchpins of federation, Indian responsibility, and reservations and safeguards that may be necessary in India's interests (covering such areas as defence, external affairs, position of minorities, financial credit of India, and discharge of other obligations).

Knowledge Base:
Other Provisions of the Gandhi-Irwin Pact:
Lord Irwin, on behalf of the government, agreed on:
- immediate release of all political prisoners not convicted of violence;
- remission of all fines not yet collected;
- return of all lands not yet sold to third parties;
- lenient treatment to those government servants who had resigned;
- right to make salt in coastal villages for personal consumption (not for sale);
- right to peaceful and non-aggressive picketing;
- withdrawal of emergency ordinances.

Viceroy Irwin, however, turned down two of Gandhi's demands:
- Public enquiry into police excesses.
- Commutation of Bhagat Singh and his comrades' death sentence to life sentence.

Q.46) A server password has been leaked. There are 3 suspects: X, Y, and Z. They were questioned, knowing that only one of them is guilty, and the guilty person makes both statements false, while each innocent person makes both statements true. Their responses are as follows:
X: I did not leak it. Y did not leak it.
Y: Z leaked it. I did not leak it.
Z: I did not leak it. X leaked it.

Who leaked the server password?
a) Z
b) Y
c) X
d) Cannot be concluded

Ans) a
Exp) Option a is the correct answer.
Given:

- Only one of X, Y, Z is guilty.
- The guilty person makes both statements false.
- Each innocent person makes both statements true.

Now test each possibility.
Check X is guilty
Then X's two statements must both be false.
X says:

I. I did not leak it. → false → X leaked it
II. Y did not leak it. → false → Y leaked it

That gives two guilty persons, which is impossible. So X cannot be guilty.
Check Y is guilty
Then Y's two statements must both be false.
Y says:

- Z leaked it. → false → Z did not leak it
- I did not leak it. → false → Y leaked it

Now X and Z are innocent, so both must speak the truth.
X says:

I. I did not leak it. → true
II. Y did not leak it. → false

So X gives one true and one false statement, which is not allowed for an innocent person. So Y cannot be guilty.
Z is guilty
Then Z's two statements must both be false.
Z says:

- I did not leak it. → false → Z leaked it
- X leaked it. → false → X did not leak it

Now X and Y are innocent, so both must speak the truth.
X says:

- I did not leak it. → true
- Y did not leak it. → true

Y says:

- Z leaked it. → true
- I did not leak it. → true

All statements are consistent.
So Z is the guilty person.

Q.47) Let X = YYYY be a 4-digit number. What is the HCF of X and 1919?
a) 11
b) 101
c) 1011
d) 1919

Ans) b

Exp) Option b is the correct answer.

A 4-digit number of the form YYYY can be written as:

X = 1111 × Y

where Y is a non-zero digit.

So,

X = 1111Y

Factorize 1111

1111 = 11 × 101

So,

X = 11 × 101 × Y

Factorize 1919

1919 = 19 × 101

Find the common factor

Now compare:

X = 11 × 101 × Y

1919 = 19 × 101

The common factor is clearly: 101

Now check whether Y can introduce any extra common factor with 1919.

Since Y is a digit from 1 to 9, it cannot be divisible by 19 or 101.

So, no extra common factor is possible.

Therefore, the HCF of X and 1919 is: 101

Q.48) A set (P) of 15 pumps can fill 60% of a pool in 18 minutes. Another set (Q) of 12 pumps fills 5/12th of the pool in 25 minutes. A third set (R) of 20 pumps can empty 45% of the pool in 27 minutes. If two-third of the pumps of set P are open and two-thirds of the pumps of set Q are open, and 15 pumps of set R are open, then how long will it take to fill 75% of the pool (assume each pump within the same set have the same efficiency)?

a) 24 minutes

b) 32 minutes

c) 36 minutes

d) 48 minutes

Ans) c

Exp) Option c is the correct answer.

Take the whole pool as 1 unit.

Rate of set P

15 pumps fill 60% = 3/5 of the pool in 18 minutes.

Rate of 15 pumps:

(3/5) / 18 = 1/30 pool per minute

Rate of active P:

(2/3) × (1/30) = 1/45 pool per minute

Rate of set Q

12 pumps fill 5/12 of the pool in 25 minutes.

Rate of 12 pumps:

(5/12) / 25 = 1/60 pool per minute

Two-thirds of Q are open, so active pumps = 8, i.e. 2/3 of the set.

Rate of active Q:

(2/3) × (1/60) = 1/90 pool per minute

Rate of set R
20 pumps empty 45% = 9/20 of the pool in 27 minutes.
Rate of 20 pumps:
(9/20) / 27 = 1/60 pool per minute
15 pumps are open, i.e. 3/4 of the set.
Rate of active R:
(3/4) × (1/60) = 1/80 pool per minute
Since R empties the pool, this is a negative rate.
Net filling rate
Net rate = P + Q − R
= 1/45 + 1/90 − 1/80
Take LCM = 720:
= 16/720 + 8/720 − 9/720 = 15/720 = 1/48
So net filling rate = 1/48 pool per minute
Time to fill 75%
Required work = 75% = 3/4
Time = (3/4) : (1/48) = (3/4) × 48 = 36 minutes

Read the following passage and answer the items that follow the passage. Your answers to these items should be based on the passage only

Passage - 1

India's pledge to reach net-zero by 2070 is a landmark political commitment, but commitments are only as just as the pathways used to realise them. The central question is not merely how to reduce emissions, but also who bears the social and economic costs of that transformation and who benefits from it. This makes a just transition essential. In the Indian context, such a transition should rest on three broad priorities. First, regions that depend heavily on coal need forward-looking plans so that workers are not left without support when mining activities decline. Second, the expansion of renewable energy should promote domestic manufacturing so that climate action also creates jobs within the country. Third, new financial mechanisms, supported by carbon levies, can help finance the re-skilling of workers and the growth of new local businesses. In the long run, India's journey to net-zero should be judged by distributive justice, lest it harden existing inequalities rather than deliver inclusive transformation.

Q.49) Which one of the following statements best reflect the most logical and rational inferences that can be drawn from the passage?
a) New jobs in the green sector need to be created to compensate for job losses in the fossil fuel industry.
b) India's commitment to achieve net zero reflects strong environmental stewardship towards a sustainable future.
c) The transition to a green future must be inclusive and ensure that its benefits are equitably shared across all sections of society.
d) The development of a carbon market could help accelerate the decarbonization of India's economy.

Ans) c
Exp) Option c is the correct answer.
Statement a is incorrect. The passage states "First, regions that depend heavily on coal need forward-looking plans so that workers are not left without support when mining activities decline. Second, the expansion of renewable energy should promote domestic manufacturing so that climate action also creates jobs within the country". However, statement a does not best reflect the most logical and rational inferences that can be drawn from the passage as it discusses the idea of just transition partially.

Statement b is incorrect. The passage states "India's pledge to reach net-zero by 2070 is a landmark political commitment". However, statement b does not best reflect the most logical and rational inferences that can be drawn from the passage as it does not talk about just transition and instead focuses upon a peripheral idea.

Statement c is correct. It best reflects the most logical and rational inferences that can be drawn from the passage as it summarizes the passage and highlights the main theme. It is mentioned in the passage as "India's journey to net-zero should be judged by distributive justice, lest it harden existing inequalities rather than deliver inclusive transformation."

Statement d is incorrect. The passage states "new financial mechanisms, supported by carbon levies, can help finance the re-skilling of workers and the growth of new local businesses". However, statement d does not best reflect the most logical and rational inferences that can be drawn from the passage as it discusses only one aspect of just transition.

Q.50) With reference to the above passage, the following assumptions have been made:
I. The transition to green energy should not undermine the livelihoods of communities that depend on fossil fuels.
II. India's steady progress in green energy places it in a strong position to achieve its net-zero target by 2070.
Which of the above assumptions is/are valid?
a) I only
b) II only
c) Both I and II
d) Neither I nor II

Ans) a

Exp) Option a is the correct answer.

Statement I is valid. The passage states "regions that depend heavily on coal need forward-looking plans so that workers are not left without support when mining activities decline". Therefore, we can conclude that assumption made in statement I is correct.

Statement II is invalid. The passage discusses how India's net zero ambition should be achieved through a just transition. However, it does not discuss India's progress in expanding green energy. Therefore, the assumption is outside the scope of the passage and thus incorrect.
